

Consulate General of India Frankfurt

Press Release

Celebration of Constitution Day

Consulate General of India, Frankfurt commemorated the Constitution Day of India today. The event included reading of the Preamble of the Constitution and offering of floral tribute to Dr. Babasaheb Ambedkar, the Chairman of the Drafting Committee of the Constitution.

An online panel discussion on similarities of Constitution and shared values between India and Germany was held. German constitutional experts, members of Indian community and representative from Europa Union, an NGO based in Frankfurt, participated in the panel discussion.

26 November 2020